

Dr. B. R. Ambedkar University, Agra

(M.Com. Result Processing Regulations-2015)

M.Com. (Previous & Final)

Student of each group in M. Com., namely A: Business Administration, B: Accounts and Law, C: Applied Business Economics, chooses four papers from the available list of papers in Previous and other five papers in Final from the remaining. Regular student can choose Project Work as a paper in final provided he/she has secured atleast 55% marks in aggregate in Previous. However, this choice is not available to private students. Viva Voce is compulsory for regular and private students in final year.

Each paper of theory carries 100 marks with 20 marks as minimum passing marks and paper of Practical, Project Work and Viva Voce Examination is of 100 marks with 36 minimum passing marks. A student is declared to have passed the examination if he/she secures 36% in aggregate and secures minimum of passing marks in each paper of passing heads Theory, Practical, Project Work and Viva Voce examination. Condonation rules do not apply to the postgraduate students who have failed to secure minimum of passing marks in one or two papers. A student fails to pass a paper if he/she is absent in a paper and in this case the result is declared as Failed.

The division is awarded with similar provisions for division grace as were provided to graduate students.
